A MESSAGE FROM THE NEBRASKA STATE TREASURER

Between holidays, school activities, and time with family, end-of-year schedules are often filled to the brim. So, when the new year comes, it’s refreshing to take a deep breath and refocus on the future. One way to start off strong in 2023? Review your NEST 529 Advisor account.

A quick check-in with your advisor can go a long way in helping plan and grow your investment in the new calendar year. An easy New Year’s resolution is to set up automatic contributions to your NEST account. You can select the frequency (monthly, quarterly, or annually) in which the funds are automatically deducted from your bank account and contributed to your NEST account. This allows you the peace of mind that your contributions are staying on track without the hassle of mailing in a check each month. Cheers to the new year — we hope it will be a wonderful one as you help your loved one soar toward their educational goals.

Chip away at your tax season to-dos.

TAKE THESE STEPS TO GET AN EARLY START

Don’t want tax season to sneak up on you? As a NEST 529 account owner, you may need to fill out a few extra forms before you file. Stay a step ahead by familiarizing yourself with the most common ones:

- NEBRASKA FORM 1040N SCHEDULE I: If you’re an account owner, or parent/guardian listed as the custodian on a UGMA/UTMA account, and you contributed up to a maximum of $10,000 ($5,000 if married, filing separately) in 2022, you may claim a state tax deduction.¹ List your contribution amount on Line 16.
- IRS FORM 1099-Q: Did you make a withdrawal in 2022? Watch for this form, which should arrive in early February 2023.
- IRS FORM 709: Discuss this form with your tax professional if your account beneficiary received gifts over $16,000 ($32,000 for a married couple splitting gifts). Note: The annual gift exclusion beginning 2023 is $17,000 ($34,000 for a married couple splitting gifts).

For more assistance, talk to your tax and financial professional.

Set them up to soar.

An investor should consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses associated with municipal fund securities before investing. This and other important information is contained in the fund prospectuses and the NEST Advisor College Savings Plan Program Disclosure Statement (issuer's official statement), which can be obtained at NEST529Advisor.com and should be read carefully before investing. You can lose money by investing in an Investment Option. Each of the Investment Options involves investment risks, which are described in the Program Disclosure Statement.

An investor should consider, before investing, whether the investor's or beneficiary's home state offers any state tax or other state benefits such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protection from creditors that are only available for investments in such state's 529 plan. Investors should consult their tax advisor, attorney, and/or other advisor regarding their specific legal, investment, or tax situation.

The NEST Advisor College Savings Plan (the “Plan”) is sponsored by the State of Nebraska, administered by the Nebraska State Treasurer, and the Nebraska Investment Council provides investment oversight. Union Bank and Trust Company serves as Program Manager and Northern Trust Securities, Inc. serves as Distributor for the Plan. The Plan offers a series of Investment Options within the Nebraska Educational Savings Plan Trust (the “Trust”), which offers other Investment Options not affiliated with the Plan. The Plan is intended to operate as a qualified tuition program.

Except for any investments made by a Plan participant in the Bank Savings Static Investment Option up to the limit provided by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) insurance, neither the principal contributed to an account, nor earnings thereon, are guaranteed or insured by the State of Nebraska, the Nebraska State Treasurer, the Nebraska Investment Council, the Trust, the Plan, any other state, any agency or instrumentality thereof, Union Bank and Trust Company, Northern Trust Securities, Inc., the FDIC, or any other entity. Investment returns are not guaranteed. Account owners in the Plan assume all investment risk, including the potential loss of principal.

*Account owners may deduct for Nebraska income tax purposes contributions they make to their own account (and any other accounts they own in the Nebraska Educational Savings Plan Trust) up to an overall maximum of $10,000 ($5,000 if married, filing separately). Contributions in excess of $10,000 cannot be carried over to a future year. For a minor owned or UGMA/UTMA 529 account, the minor is considered the account owner for Nebraska state income tax deduction purposes. The minor must file a Nebraska tax return for the year their contributions are made to be eligible for a tax deduction for their own contributions. In the case of a UGMA/UTMA 529 account, contributions by the parent/guardian listed as the Custodian on the UGMA/UTMA Plan account are also eligible for a Nebraska state tax deduction.
