➤ Maximize your savings: Don't miss out on year-end tax benefits.

A MESSAGE FROM THE NEBRASKA STATE TREASURER

As we approach the end of the year, don't forget that if you want to make the most of your loved one's NEST 529 Advisor account, your 2024 contributions need to be made by the December 31 deadline. By doing so, you'll be able to take full advantage of potential tax benefits associated with contributions you've made throughout the year.

Remember, you won't have to pay state or federal taxes on the money your investment earns while it remains in the Plan. When it's time for your loved ones to leave the nest, you can withdraw those funds tax-free, as long as they're used for qualified higher education expenses like tuition and supplies.<sup>1</sup>

Nebraska account owners benefit from an annual Nebraska state income tax deduction of up to $10,000<sup>2</sup> — one of the many benefits of planning ahead for your loved one's future. We encourage you to take time to talk with your financial advisor about your 2024 NEST 529 Advisor contributions and begin planning for 2025!

Need to roll over an out-of-state 529 account?

FOR 2024 TAX BENEFITS, START THE PROCESS BEFORE DECEMBER

When you roll over out-of-state 529 accounts to NEST, you could be eligible for 2024 tax benefits, including a Nebraska state income tax deduction of up to $10,000<sup>2,3</sup>. If you haven't already, ask your advisor about starting this process as early as possible, so it's completed by the December 31 tax deadline. Rollovers can take several weeks, so it's important to plan ahead. Review the various considerations with your tax and financial advisor, including any potential recapture of tax deductions received from the original state, as well as whether any penalties or charges may apply.

Remember: There's more than one way to use your 529 Plan.

USING NEST 529 ADVISOR FUNDS FOR COLLEGE, TRADE SCHOOL, AND BEYOND

What's your first thought when you hear the phrase "higher education"? If it's along the lines of a four-year institution, you're not alone. Many NEST 529 Advisor account owners started saving to plan ahead for their loved one's college education — but that's not the only path to their future dreams. Don't forget, your 529 account can also be used to cover the costs associated with trade school, technical programs, two-year community colleges, and qualified apprenticeship programs. If you're planning to go back to school yourself, set up a 529 account for your own personal use.

A holiday gift they'll remember for life.

The holiday season is one of the busiest times of the year. Between gift-giving, list-checking, and planning for holiday trips, it's easy for things like saving for higher education to slip your mind. As a NEST 529 Advisor account owner, there's a way to make sure your savings goals stay on track while you're enjoying quality time. When you send your little loved one's wish list out to friends and family, you can also email an invite to contribute to your loved one's NEST 529 Advisor account as an alternate or additional gift option. Remember — even small contributions will help you plan for rising college costs.

An investor should consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses associated with municipal fund securities before investing. This and other important information is contained in the fund prospectuses and the NEST Advisor College Savings Plan Program Disclosure Statement (issuer's official statement), which can be obtained at NEST529Advisor.com and should be read carefully before investing. You can lose money by investing in an Investment Option. Each of the Investment Options involves investment risks, which are described in the Program Disclosure Statement.

An investor should consider, before investing, whether the investor's or beneficiary's home state offers any state tax or other state benefits such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protection from creditors that are only available for investments in such state's 529 plan. Investors should consult their tax advisor, attorney, and/or other advisor regarding their specific legal, investment, or tax situation.

The NEST Advisor College Savings Plan (the "Plan") is sponsored by the State of Nebraska, administered by the Nebraska State Treasurer, and the Nebraska Investment Council provides investment oversight. Union Bank and Trust Company serves as Program Manager and Northern Trust Securities, Inc. serves as Distributor for the Plan. The Plan offers a series of Investment Options within the Nebraska Educational Savings Plan Trust (the "Trust"), which offers other Investment Options not affiliated with the Plan. The Plan is intended to operate as a qualified tuition program.

Except for any investments made by a Plan participant in the Bank Savings Underlying Investment up to the limit provided by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") insurance, neither the principal contributed to an account, nor earnings thereon, are guaranteed or insured by the State of Nebraska, the Nebraska State Treasurer, the Nebraska Investment Council, the Trust, the Plan, any other state, any agency or instrumentality thereof, Union Bank and Trust Company, Northern Trust Securities, Inc., the FDIC, or any other entity. Investment returns are not guaranteed. Account owners in the Plan assume all investment risk, including the potential loss of principal.

<sup>1</sup>Withdrawals used to pay for qualified higher education expenses are free from federal and Nebraska state income tax. Qualified higher education expenses include tuition, fees, books, supplies, and equipment required for enrollment or attendance; certain room and board expenses incurred by students who are enrolled at least half-time; the purchase of computer or peripheral equipment, computer software, or Internet access and related services, if used primarily by the beneficiary during any of the years the beneficiary is enrolled at an eligible educational institution; certain expenses for special needs services needed by a special needs beneficiary; apprenticeship program expenses; and payment of principal or interest on any qualified education loan of the Beneficiary or a sibling of the Beneficiary (up to an aggregate lifetime limit of $10,000 per individual). However, earnings on all other types of withdrawals are generally subject to federal and Nebraska state income taxes, and an additional 10% federal tax. Nebraska law does not treat the following Federal Qualified Higher Education Expenses as Nebraska Qualified Expenses: K-12 Tuition Expenses. If a withdrawal is made for such purposes, although it is a Federal Qualified Withdrawal, it will be treated as a Nebraska Non-Qualified Withdrawal and may result in the recapture of a previously claimed Nebraska state income tax deduction, and the earnings portion will be subject to Nebraska state income tax. Please consult your tax professional about your particular situation.

<sup>2</sup>Account owners may deduct for Nebraska income tax purposes contributions they make to their own account (and any other accounts they own in the Nebraska Educational Savings Plan Trust) up to an overall maximum of $10,000 ($5,000 if married, filing separately). Contributions in excess of $10,000 cannot be carried over to a future year. For a minor owned or UGMA/UTMA 529 account, the minor is considered the account owner for Nebraska state income tax deduction purposes. The minor must file a Nebraska tax return for the year their contributions are made to be eligible for a tax deduction for their own contributions. In the case of a UGMA/UTMA 529 account, contributions by the parent/guardian listed as the Custodian on the UGMA/UTMA Plan account are also eligible for a Nebraska state tax deduction.

<sup>3</sup>Rollovers from another qualified tuition program are treated as a non-taxable distribution from the distributing qualified tuition program provided (1) it has been more than 12 months since any previous rollover for the beneficiary, or (2) the beneficiary of the account is changed to a Member of the Family of the current beneficiary.
